1 次の英文を読み、設問に答えなさい。

Jim Thorpe was an American Indian who rose from a very poor childhood to become one of the greatest athletes of the 20th century. He had a hard life and suffered many difficulties, but he was a champion (①) track and field, baseball, football, and just about any sport he tried.

Thorpe was born in 1897 on an Indian reservation in the American state (②) Oklahoma. His Indian name was Wa-Tho-Huk, which means “Bright Path.” In 1904 he was sent (③) from home to a far-away school for Indians in the eastern part of the United States. There he learned to play football and developed a love of sports of all kinds.

In 1912 Thorpe went (④) part of the U.S. team to the Olympic Games in Europe. He won several gold medals (①) track and field events. It was (⑤) this time that the King of Belgium told Thorpe, “You are the greatest athlete in the world!” After returning to America, Thorpe played several years of professional big league baseball and professional football.

Unfortunately, Jim Thorpe lived a rather short life. He died in 1953 at the age of 56. However, his memory is still alive. In 1950, an American newspaper selected Jim Thorpe as the most outstanding athlete of the first half of the 20th Century, and in 2001, he was named Athlete of the Century.
