Carly Simon is one of the most popular female singers of the past 40 years. She was born in 1945 in New York City. Her father was a book publisher, and her mother was an excellent singer. She is a creative songwriter and has written songs for other singers and for some important movies, including one James Bond movie. She has also acted in both movies and (③) television. Finally, Simon is a writer, especially of books for children.

Simon is still performing, although she has reduced the number of concerts she (④) each year. Also, she doesn't record as often as she (⑤) thirty years ago. But she continues to write books and music, and today she lives a quiet life in the American state of Virginia, close to the Atlantic Ocean.
