解答例 1 A cell phone is not just a portable telephone to make a phone call. It is a multi-purpose computer: you can send e-mails, take pictures or videos, use the Internet, listen to music and so on. You can even make payments! (41 words)

解答例 2 It is true that cell phones have some bad effects, such as children spending many hours with it, bullying through Line, and driving while using cell phones. We cannot, however, choose life without it, so we should learn how to use it wisely.(43)
